

British Values

7th-13th September

Democracy

Often, when we stand up or ask for help as a group or community, our collective voices can be more powerful than as an individual.

7th September 2020

UN Rights of a Child

Every child has the right to social and economic help. In some parts of the world, there are people who may choose to live separate lives from others, they may be part of a tribe like the Kayapo people in Brazil. As citizens of their country, it is important they still have access to help when needed.

