

change

When there is a change, something is different.

When plans change, we do something different.

How do you feel when things change?

Change

change to plans

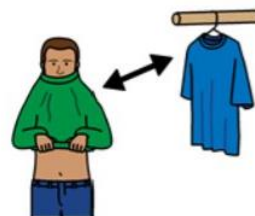

change gear

change channel

climate change

changing clothes

