

Investigate

When we want to find all about something, we need to investigate.

When we investigate, we find out as much about something as we can.

When we investigate, we might look carefully, ask people and find information on the internet or in books.

Investigate:
look for...

